History of the Institution	Millat Teachers' Training College, Madhubani is an unaided minority institution situated at Madhubani district headquarters near Indo-Nepal border. Madhubani, a part of Mithila region has been a place of knowledge and wisdom since ancient times. The Mithila region has produced many scholars, philosophers and thinkers. This part of Mithilanchal has always been intellectually fertile. Madhubani is also known for its cultural heritage and worldwide acclaimed Madhubani Painting. Madhubani has a very thick population from both Muslim and Non-Muslim communities. But unfortunately this part of Mithila region is one of the most backward areas of the state economically as well as socially. There are no industries in this area and majority of population is dependent only on agriculture for their livelihood. In view of these problems the I.I. Minorities Edu. & Dev. Society registered under Societies Registration Act, which is dedicated to Islamic and modern education, cultural, religious and economic development of the Muslim communities and others in general and also for development of Urdu language preserving the secular character of the nation, resolved on 30-09-1986 to establish a teacher training college at Madhubani. In result of that the Millat Teachers' Training College came into existence by completing all infrastructural needs as per the rule and started the academic session of B.Ed. course from 1991-1992. At present the college is being managed and administered by the Milli Trust. By nature the college is a minority institution declared by National Commission for Minority Educational Institutions and covered under Article 30 of the constitution of India. The college is permanently recognized by the state govt., ERC, N.C.T.E Bhubaneshwar and permanently affiliated to L.N. Mithila University, Darbhanga and B.S.E.B. Patna. Our college is also accredited by NAAC with 'B' Grade. The ERC, NCTE Bhubaneshwar has granted 250 seats for B.Ed., 200 seats for D.El.Ed. and 100 seats for B.P.Ed course.
Vision Statement	• To provide quality education among the community specially Minority and youths belongs to poor background • To produce quality teachers so that they can give better education to the children of the society. • To restore the glory of Mithilanchal in knowledge and wisdom.
Mission and Objectives	• Intellectual development of educated youth • Academic training to became a successful teacher • Assess to the disadvantage groups specially Muslim for teachers training • Self Development • Community and National Development • To create awareness regarding ecology and environment
